

Submarine Force Museum Scavenger Hunt

Welcome to the Submarine Force Museum. This scavenger hunt is meant to guide you towards some of the unique items in our collection. Discovering more about the history and heritage of the U.S. Navy Submarine Force in the process. For each object fill in the blank with information that can be found in our exhibits.

2.
Whitehead Torpedo

1. Here the _____ steers the rudder while the _____ operates the stern plans.

2. Developed in the year _____ the Whitehead Torpedo was one of the earliest to use _____ to control its aim.

4.
Paul Foster
Revolver

3. Commander Gilmore's last order was _____, for which he was awarded a posthumous Medal of Honor.

4. Admiral Foster earned a Distinguished Service Medal for attempting to ram a _____ with his submarine.

6.
Bushnell's Turtle

5. CDR Eugene Fluckey commanded the USS Barb during WWII. The train depicted on the flag represents _____ making them the only Allied forces to invade the _____.

6. Sergeant _____ of Lyme, CT was chosen to operate David Bushnell's Turtle during its attack on the HMS _____.

1.
Ship Control Panel

3.
Howard Gilmore
Dress Sword

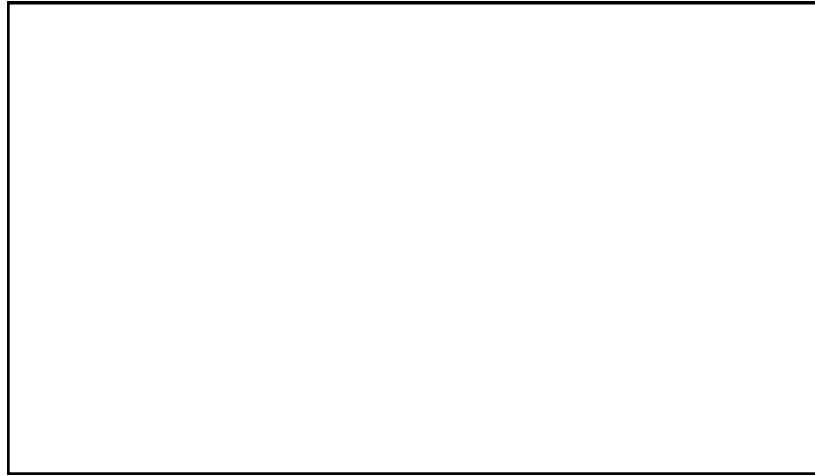

5.
USS Barb
Battle Flag

Submarine Force Museum Scavenger Hunt

Look at the wall of submarine models in our main hall and draw your favorite below:

8.
Greetings From the North Pole

7. This elevator was especially constructed for President _____'s visit aboard SSBN 610 due to his back injury.

7.
Elevator

8. The crews of the _____ and the _____ played the world's first polar _____ game.

9.
USS Skipjack Memo

9. Read the memo and see if you can figure out what material the Skipjack was attempting to obtain.

Answer: _____

10.
Polaris Tartan

10. This tartan was designed and named for the Polaris missile and reflects the many years the US Navy had a submarine base at _____ Scotland.

11.
City Beneath the Sea

11. Food is prepared for the crew in the _____ and served at tables in the crew's _____.